

Projects Funded In The Community

Over the last year, several groups within the Dinas Powys and Sully areas have successfully been awarded funding through Welsh Water's Community Fund. Read more about these groups here.

The Community Fund is a chance for communities to boost fundraising efforts for good causes in their area. If you live in an area where work is taking place – and you're fundraising for projects to benefit the community – you could receive funding from Welsh Water up to a value of £1,000. ### DINAS POWYS AND SULLY GROUPS OBTAIN WELSH WATER FUNDING

Four groups in Dinas Powys and Sully have recently obtained funding through Welsh Water's Community Fund, which was launched to give something back to the communities that we are investing in. Here are some of the groups that have benefited from this fund.

SULLY

Sully Village Group

In February Sully Village Group obtained funding to install beach clean stations as part of their beach clean project. Hannah Bevan Mohaffel of Sully Village Group said: "The group will work with Sully School to design the graphics for the beach clean station and we will use local printing and builder to print the graphics and install the station. We look forward to doing this and involving our whole community in our efforts to keep Sully Beach clean."

Lavernock Community Library

Lavernock Community Library successfully secured funding to install a bookshelf mural sign which will help promote the library. Richard Thomas from Lavernock Community Library said: "The money will be spent to create a bookshelf mural sign along the length of the building, adding colour and interest to the library and increasing visitor numbers to our library".

Lavernock NR Volunteer (part of The Wildlife Trust S Wales)

Lavernock NR Volunteer (part of The Wildlife Trust South Wales) which is based at Lavernock Point in Sully, secured funding in [date]. The money secured will be used to improve the local footpath network and purchase tools which will help volunteers with their work.

DINAS POWYS

1st Dinas Powys Scout Group

1st Dinas Powys Scout Group have recently been renovating their scout hall. To help with this, they applied through our Community Fund and successfully secured funding which will go towards installing a new wood floor in the main community room. This community room is used by Cubs, Scouts, Guides as well as other not for profit community organisations. David Davies, Chairman of 1st Dinas Scout Group said, "The fund will help complete our community room, opening the hall to more community use and ensure our scout hall is sustainable for the next future generation's needs."

Murch Bowling Club

Murch Bowling Club secured funding in February. The money will be used to convert an outside grassed area which will include outside tables and chairs and provide an area where members and friends can watch the activities taking place on the bowling green.
